Parables by Jesus

The Rich Fool

Jesus said, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed." He told this parable: "The ground of a rich man yielded an abundant harvest. He said, 'I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones, to store my surplus grain. I'll say, You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.' But God said, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you prepared for yourself?' This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God."

The Great Banquet

A man prepared a great banquet and invited many guests. He sent his servant to say, 'Come, for everything is now ready.' But they made excuses. One said, 'I just bought a field, and must go see it.' Another said, 'I just bought 5 oxen, and I'm trying them out.' Another said, 'I just got married.' The servant reported this to his master, who became angry and ordered his servant, 'Go and bring in the poor, crippled, blind and lame. Compel them to come, so my house will be full. I tell you, not one of those who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.'

The Apocalypse

Bible's Book of Revelation

(The world to come): The river of life flows from the throne of God and Jesus through the city. On each side of the river stands the tree of life, yielding fruit every month. The leaves are for healing. No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of Jesus will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. There will be no more night. They will not need a lamp or the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign forever.

Divine Wisdom

Bible Proverbs

This is the way of an adulterous woman: She eats and wipes her mouth and says, "I've done nothing wrong."

Speak up for those who can't speak for themselves, the rights of the destitute.

Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

To show partiality in judging isn't good.

To fear the LORD is to hate evil.

Hebrew Prophets

Of the Bible

Come near, you nations, and listen; pay attention, you peoples! Let the earth hear! The LORD is angry with all nations; his wrath is on all their armies. He will totally destroy them; he will give them over to slaughter. Their slain will be thrown out, their dead bodies stink; the mountains soaked with their blood.

The stars in the sky will be dissolved and the heavens rolled up like a scroll. For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of retribution, to uphold Zion's cause.

Psalms

Of The Bible

Do not fret because of those who are evil; like the grass they will soon wither. Trust in the Lord and do good. Delight in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart. A little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look for them, they'll not be found. But the meek will inherit the land and enjoy peace. The wicked plot against the righteous, but the Lord laughs at them for he knows their day is coming. Turn from evil and do good. For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones.

Mustard Seed, Yeast

The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed. Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so the birds come and perch in its branches.

It is also like yeast mixed into flour until it is worked all through the dough.

Good Samaritan

A man going to Jericho was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. A priest happened to be going down the road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. So too, a Levite, when he saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. He bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. The next day he gave two denarii to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expenses.'

Jesus asked, "Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who was robbed? Go and do likewise."

The Lost Coin

Suppose a woman has ten coins and loses one. Doesn't she light a lamp, sweep the house and search until she finds it? When she does, she calls her friends together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I found my lost coin.' In the same way, there is rejoicing in the presence of God's angels over one sinner who repents.

Unforgiving Servant

A king wanted to settle accounts with his servants. A man owed him ten thousand bags of gold, and since he was not able to pay, the master ordered he and his family to be sold to repay the debt. The servant fell on his knees. 'Be patient; I'll pay it back.' The master took pity on him and canceled the debt.

That servant found a fellow servant who owed him a hundred coins, and he choked him. 'Pay it back!' He begged, 'Be patient, I'll pay it back.' But he refused and had him thrown in prison until he could pay. The other servants were outraged and told their master.

The master called him. 'You wicked servant. Shouldn't you have had mercy as I had on you?' His master handed him to the jailers, until he pay back all he owed. This is how God will treat you unless you forgive your brother.

The Growing Seed

The kingdom of God is like a man scattering seed on the ground. Night and day the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how. All by itself the soil produces grain—first the stalk, then the head, then the full kernel. As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts the sickle to it, because the harvest has come.

Vineyard Workers

A landowner was hiring workers for his vineyard, agreeing to pay a denarius. At nine he saw others standing in the market and said, ‘Go work in my vineyard; I’ll pay whatever is right.’ At noon and three he did the same thing. At five in the afternoon, he found still others standing around. He said, ‘You also go work in my vineyard.’

At evening, the owner said, ‘Pay their wages, beginning with the last ones hired.’ The workers hired at five got a denarius. So those who were hired first expected to get more, but received a denarius and they grumbled.

But he answered them, ‘Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius? Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?’ So the last will be first, and the first will be last.

The Fishing Net

The kingdom of heaven is like a net that caught all kinds of fish. The fishermen pulled it on the shore, then collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad away. At the end of the age angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the furnace, where there will be weeping.

The Ten Coins

A man (Jesus) went off to be appointed king. So, he called ten servants and gave them ten coins. ‘Put this to work.’ When he later returned, he sent for them.

The first said, ‘Sir, your coin earned ten more.’ ‘Well done!’ his master replied. ‘You’ve been trustworthy in a small matter, take charge of ten cities.’ The second said, ‘Your coin earned five more.’ His master answered, ‘You take charge of five cities.’

Another servant came, ‘Sir, here is your coin, laid away in a piece of cloth. I was afraid, because you are a hard man.’

His master said, ‘I’ll judge you by your own words, wicked servant! You knew I am a hard man? Why didn’t you deposit my money, to collect interest? Give his coin to the one with ten. To everyone who has, more is given, but the one with nothing loses even what they have.’

The Fig Tree

A man had a fig tree in his vineyard with no fruit. He said to the gardener, 'For three years I've looked for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?' 'Sir, leave it alone for one more year, and I'll fertilize it. If it bears fruit next year, fine! If not, cut it down.'

Sheep and Goats

When Jesus comes in his glory, he will separate all the people as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

The King will say to those on his right, 'Take your inheritance. For I was hungry, thirsty, a stranger, needed clothes, sick, in prison and you helped me.' The righteous will ask, 'Lord, when did we do this?' The King will reply, 'Whatever you did for the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

He'll say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil. For I was hungry, thirsty, a stranger, needed clothes, sick, in prison and you did not help me.' They will answer, 'Lord, when did we not help you?' He will reply, 'Whatever you did not do for one of these, you did not do for me.' They will go to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life.

Suppose one of you has 100 sheep and loses one. Doesn't he leave the 99 and go after the lost sheep? When he finds it, he joyfully calls his friends, 'Rejoice with me; I found my lost sheep.' The Prodigal Son

A man had two sons. The younger set off for a far country and squandered his wealth in wild living. There was a severe famine, and he began to be in need. He came to his senses, 'My father's servants have food to spare, and here I am starving! I will go back to my father and say I have sinned against heaven and you.' So he went.

His father saw him, ran and threw his arms around him and kissed him. The son said, 'Father, I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said, 'Bring the best robe. Kill the fattened calf. Let's celebrate. For this son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'

The older son became angry and said to his father, 'I've slaved for you, yet you never gave me even a goat to celebrate. When this son who squandered your property returns, you kill the fattened calf!' The father said, 'We had to celebrate, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again.'

Treasure & Pearl

The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and in his joy sold all he had and bought that field.

Rich Man & Beggar

There was a rich man living in luxury. At his gate was a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table.

The beggar died and angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died. In Hades, where he was in torment, he saw Abraham far away, Lazarus by his side. He called, 'Father Abraham, have pity. I am in agony in this fire.'

Abraham replied, 'Remember that in your lifetime you received good things, while Lazarus received bad, but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides, between us and you is a great chasm no one can cross over.'

'Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my family to warn them, so they will not also come to this place of torment.'

Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.'

The Servant

Suppose one of you has a servant. Will he say to him when he comes from the field, 'Sit and eat'? Won't he rather say, 'Prepare my supper. Wait on me while I eat; after that you may eat'? Weeds in the Wheat

The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. While they slept, his enemy sowed weeds among the wheat. When the wheat sprouted, the weeds also appeared. The servants said, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed? Where did the weeds come from?' 'An enemy did this,' he replied. The servants asked, 'Do you want us to pull them up?' 'No, because while you pull the weeds, you may uproot the wheat. Let both grow until harvest. I will tell the harvesters: Collect the weeds to be burned; then gather the wheat into my barn.'

Jesus explains: 'I sow the good seed. The field is the world, and the good seed stands for the people of the kingdom. The weeds are the people of the evil one, and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.'
